Re: Mansel Oil Limited v. Swift Aviation Group, Inc.
08 CV 1086 (GBD)
Our Ref.: 129053-00601

Dear Judge Daniels:

This firm represents Plaintiff Mansel Oil Limited in the above matter.

I am pleased to attach a stipulation signed by Plaintiff, Defendant Swift Aviation Group, Inc., and Intervenor Swift Air, LLC which resolves the disputes concerning 1) the attachment of $118,136 at Bank of America which was the subject of Swift Air's motion to vacate and 2) the attachment on April 4 of $49,300 which had not yet become the subject of a motion.

The stipulation renders moot the request made in my letter to the Court of April 4 that the Court reconsider its Order of April 4 vacating the attachment of $118,136.

Otherwise, the stipulation does not affect the Court's Attachment Order of February 5 or Plaintiff's pending motion for leave to file an amended complaint and other relief.

With the attachments, the length of this fax exceeds the Court's page limit. The parties respectfully request that the Court accept this fax in the circumstances of this matter.

If the Stipulation is acceptable to the Court, we ask that the Court "so order" and deliver to the Clerk for filing and entry. Once it is entered, Mr. Radzik will serve it on the Garnishee banks so that the funds will be released.
